(On record - 10:00 a.m.)

CHAIRMAN THOMAS: Well, you guys are all wondering why we have such a nice day out there. With the note we ended on yesterday, you guys weren't very productive, but when I heard you commit to finishing two documents by this morning, I thought I would do a weather change for you. So that's what happened. Dale?

MR. KANEN: The weather is the realm of the district ranger, I'm sorry. (Laughter)

CHAIRMAN THOMAS: Anyway, yesterday we went through all of our items — action items on our listed agenda. Generated from our discussions regarding the agenda, we came up with a need to create at least two documents. And everybody — virtually everybody but me, I guess, was really involved in doing this and I really want to thank all of you for your commitment to doing that. And with that, Mim, being — leading the charge on one of them, I will let you introduce what actions you folks did in the committee.

MS. ROBINSON: Okay. I'm going to pass it over to Fred because he's got it all in the computer. All the changes and stuff. What we were thinking is to just read, for now, the proposed changes and there's --well, we've made some copies of some of them but then they got kind of changed a little more -- but some of them are pretty much the same -- so I could -- well, I've got three copies here. There's another one. These have some of the changes. Would anyone like to see a copy?

CHAIRMAN THOMAS: Do you have -- on your machine there -- with the changes?

MS. ROBINSON: Yeah, but if somebody wants to read it, you can kind of follow along a little bit on some of this if someone's reading it. There's this one which more or less has the changes in it. That one's kind of bad.

CHAIRMAN THOMAS: These are all the same?

LTD COURT REPORTERS

MS. ROBINSON: It's all the same. Just -- yes, pass it down. Some additional changes were made to that -- that you have in your hand. So, you want to go ahead and just read it?

MR. CLARK: Sure. This is addressed to The Honorable Ted Stevens.

"Dear Senator Stevens: The Southeast Alaska Regional Advisory Council was mandated by Title 8 of ANILCA to protect the subsistence uses and" -- I think it should be "protect subsistence uses and lifestyles." Pardon me while I'll edit as we go. "The Southeast Alaska Federal Subsistence Regional Advisory Council supports the U.S. Forest Service's present TLMP revision process. We support their objective of incorporating reasonable conservation to sustain all resources, the use of sound science, and public This process will provide essential protection of subsistence uses for all Southeast Alaska rural residents and will safeguard the lifestyle and jobs of future generations of Alaskans.

Next paragraph: "The high Alternative P harvest threatens to place both subsistence users and resources on the endangered species list. We believe that in addressing and providing for subsistence needs, there must be a substantial reduction in the amount of timber harvested on the Tongass, both annually and over the long term. Without reductions, the habitat and the biodiversity of the ecosystem on which our life depends is justification for more conservation discipline through timber harvesting. As responsible constituents of your representation, we are using our inherent skills and instincts to contribute to sustainable resource management.

"The Southeast Regional Advisory Council is vehemently opposed to any attempts by the Congress to circumvent or restrict the public process. The rider to the FY '96 Interior Appropriations Bill attempting to force Alternative P and/or the number of acres of timberlands identified in Alternative P on the rural residents of Southeast Alaska, restriction on amendments to the plan and on the ability to appeal timber sales and offers to totally -- offers totally eliminates the public process. It insults the integrity of all Southeast Alaskans' hard won progress in developing a workable consensus on managing the Tongass.

LTD COURT REPORTERS

"We are involved in the TLMP revision process. We are reviewing the alternatives. The draft TLMP revision will be available for public comment by the end of this year. We believe that within six months to a year, a consensus by all concerned entities can be reached using the existing public forum. Congress' proposed mandates reduce the likelihood of consensus on alternatives and further endanger subsistence cultures and lifestyle.

"As members of the subsistence community who are intimately aware of subsistence needs and uses, we believe that the public process is the only acceptable avenue in a democratic society."

End of letter.

MS. ROBINSON: Okay. Just a couple comments. Some things that came to mind. The part where "We're intimately knowledgeable," or what was it?

MR. CLARK: The final sentence?

MS. ROBINSON: Yeah.

MR. CLARK: "As members of the subsistence community who are intimately aware...

MS. ROBINSON: Right. Okay. The part of the sentence that Patty and Phil wrote, there's a part in there that kind of says the same thing that could maybe put — those two incorporated in the last sentence instead of where it's at right now. I don't know. Anyway, there's a little more fine tuning that needs to happen. I don't know if we want to do that here at the table or if we want to take this one more time in a little while here, get some more copies done up.

CHAIRMAN THOMAS: Does everybody -- were we all able to hear?

(General consensus)

MS. ROBINSON: It still needs a little more fine tuning though. Another thought that I had was where it says, let me think. Oh, where "We are reviewing the alternatives." To me, that's not really a true statement. We're -- I haven't seen any alternative -- I mean shouldn't it be "We will be reviewing the alternatives", I think, is more accurate. I see some nods.

LTD COURT REPORTERS

1 2 MR. NEWHOUSE: What you are doing right now is 3 the social analysis that has been done by the 4 scientists. That was provided to you. 5 6 MR. CLARK: How about "portions of alternatives." 7 8 CHAIRMAN THOMAS: Dolly wants in here too. 9 10 MS. GARZA: Actually, we have seen the 11 alternatives before. 12 13 MS. ROBINSON: But there will be more. 14 15 MS. GARZA: Right. But I mean we have done it so 16 we're in the process. There may be more alternatives 17 presented. However, Mr. Chairman, what I would suggest 18 is that we accept this letter in concept and have a 19 small group refine it because I think if it keeps being 20 a large group, it's just going to evolving, evolving 21 and evolving and I think if we have two or three people 22 sit down, they can wrap it up. 23 24 CHAIRMAN THOMAS: Any objections? 25 26 MS. ROBINSON: Sounds good to me. 27 28 CHAIRMAN THOMAS: You object? 29 30 MS. PHILLIPS: I just want to make sure our 31 portion of the letter is in there, Mr. Chair. 32 33 MS. ROBINSON: It will be. 34 35 CHAIRMAN THOMAS: It will be. It's going to be 36 -- you're part of that small group they're talking 37 about. 38 39 MS. ROBINSON: The chairman's going to be signing 40 it so you can be sure it will be in there in one form 41 or another. It just needs to be -- you know, just 42 needs to get fine tuned a little bit, just like the 43 rest of the letter. 44 45 MS. PHILLIPS: Well, this is a letter of the 46 council. 47 48 MS. ROBINSON: Uh-huh (affirmative.) 49 50 CHAIRMAN THOMAS: Uh-huh (affirmative.) 51

LTD COURT REPORTERS

MS. WILSON: Mr. Chairman? 2 3 CHAIRMAN THOMAS: Marilyn. 4 5 MS. WILSON: I move that we accept this letter in 6 concept draft form. 7 8 MR. ANDERSON: Second Marilyn's motion. 9 10 CHAIRMAN THOMAS: It's been moved and seconded. 11 We have the motion. Any further discussion? 12 13 MS. GARZA: Mr. Chairman? 14 15 CHAIRMAN THOMAS: Dolly. 16 17 MS. GARZA: The intent would be that it would be 18 finalized, signed by the chairman and sent off to? 19 20 MS. ROBINSON: Both resources committees and both 21 appropriations committee and to the President. 22 23 MS. GARZA: Okay. 24 25 MS. ROBINSON: And that would... 26 27 UNIDENTIFIED: Speak in favor of the motion. 28 29 MS. ROBINSON: ...just by the... 30 31 MS. WILSON: That would make a good amendment, to 32 make sure we get all that done. 33 34 MS. GARZA: Well, as long as it's understood. 35 you understand that, Mr. Chairman? 36 37 CHAIRMAN THOMAS: You're going to have a --38 you're going to have a CC list on there anyway, I 39 think, aren't you? 40 41 That's -- that's going to --MS. ROBINSON: 42 that's the CC list. Basically. 43 44 MS. GARZA: I don't think I'll be on that small 45 committee but I think that what we need to wrap it up 46 with is just a comment that we oppose the rider and --47 I mean, if we're addressing it to Senator Stevens, we 48 should ask him that he withdraw that rider. 49 50 CHAIRMAN THOMAS: Yeah, that's right.

          MS. ROBINSON: Right, right.

          CHAIRMAN THOMAS: ...we haven't offered an alternative.

14
15
          MS. ROBINSON: Sounds good.
16
          MS. GARZA: To withdraw the rider to allow the

1 CHAIRMAN THOMAS: Okay. 2 3 MS. GARZA: Mr. Chairman? 4 5 CHAIRMAN THOMAS: Dolly. 6 7 MS. GARZA: I would move that we table this 8 resolution to our next meeting so that we can get some 9 information on 100-foot buffer zones, information on 10 the effects of clearcutting and a good summary of TTRA. 11 Because otherwise we're supporting something that we 12 don't have data on. 13 14 CHAIRMAN THOMAS: Is that a motion? 15 16 MS. GARZA: I so move. 17 18 CHAIRMAN THOMAS: There's a motion. Is there a 19 second? 20 21 MS. ROBINSON: I'll second it. 22 23 CHAIRMAN THOMAS: Further discussion? All those 24 in favor say aye. 25 26 MS. GARZA: Aye. 27 28 MS. ROBINSON: Aye. 29 30 MR. FELLER: Aye. 31 32 CHAIRMAN THOMAS: Opposed? 33 34 MS. PHILLIPS: Aye. 35 36 MS. ROBINSON: It looks like a good idea, Patty. 37 38 MS. GARZA: And then we can -- I guess the 39 chairman can direct the Forest Service or whoever it 40 would be to provide some information at the next 41 meeting. 42 If I can do that, I don't know 43 CHAIRMAN THOMAS: 44 if I'll be happy with this position. I'll want an 45 escalation of authority here. 46 47 MR. ANDERSON: You'd probably want more pay too. 48 49 CHAIRMAN THOMAS: I'm starting to intoxicate myself with power. (Laughter)

MS. ROBINSON: Watch out, you'll be going the way of Stevens, Young and Murkowski.

MS. GARZA: If you want, we can sober you up and bring you back down to earth. (Laughter)

CHAIRMAN THOMAS: I want to continue my high for a little while.

 ${\tt MS.}$ ROBINSON: We'll let you know when you've had enough.

CHAIRMAN THOMAS: So is it the wishes then of the group to do this now? Break into small groups now?

MS. ROBINSON: What else did we have?

 ${\tt MS.}$ GARZA: No, we have to do the annual report stuff.

MS. ROBINSON: The annual report. Plus it would be -- well, I guess we could work on them. Yeah.

CHAIRMAN THOMAS: Okay, on the annual report, I think that -- I think we should familiarize ourselves with how much of that we're going to satisfy. I say that because the instructions includes us to deal with fish as well as wildlife and at this point in our report, I don't think we want to do any elaborating on fish. So that's the only thing I wanted to point out and probably -- I understand deleting that from the report.

MS. GARZA: Say that again?

CHAIRMAN THOMAS: I have to dig out my paddle. Okay, it's says, "The preparation of the annual report to the Secretary which shall contain an identification of current and anticipated subsistence use of fish and wildlife populations within the region; an evaluation of current and anticipated subsistence needs for fish and wildlife populations within the region; a recommended strategy for management of fish and wildlife populations within the region to accommodate said subsistence uses and needs and recommendations concerning policies, standards and guidelines and regulations to implement the strategies."

If we're going to do that, we may as well take over the department.

LTD COURT REPORTERS

MS. GARZA: Okay.

CHAIRMAN THOMAS: Well, anyway, all I'm suggesting here is that we amend our response to this to do our best to satisfy this without including the fish portion is all I'm saying. Dolly?

MS. GARZA: I guess Mr. Chairman, it would be my preference that we have something about fish in there. Mostly a statement about our disappointment that we're not able to deal with fishery issues considering, you know, the Katie John -- the present status allows for us to deal with some portions of it. However, the Federal Subsistence Board policy is not to. And I think it should be in our report that we're quite anxious to start that process.

CHAIRMAN THOMAS: Well, it called for recommendations concerning policies, standards and guidelines and regulations to implement the strategy. So that does give us that -- that can be our response to that portion.

MS. GARZA: Okay.

MS. LE CORNU: I think we could say that it's incumbent on us not to ignore it and, you know, we have to address it somehow even though it -- it's not within our domain right now.

CHAIRMAN THOMAS: Well, that's true and we can do that because they're asking for a lot. Recommendations concerning policies, standards and guidelines and regulations to implement the strategy. So we could incorporate that as part of our strategies. So, no problem.

MR. CLARK Mr. Chairman?

CHAIRMAN THOMAS: Fred.

MR. CLARK: Would it be of assistance to the council to have examples of other regions' annual reports to review?

MS. GARZA: I think so.

MR. CLARK: For format and content. I don't have those at present but I could provide those to council members if they would like.

LTD COURT REPORTERS

CHAIRMAN THOMAS: Do we have copies of our past reports from this region?

MR. CLARK: No.

CHAIRMAN THOMAS: I would be more interested in looking at those than other regions.

MS. WILSON: Did Carol take it with her?

MR. ANDERSON: Yeah, maybe send us all back one.

MS. GARZA: When does this have to be done?

MR. CLARK: I think it's November -- mid-November, I think, is when it's due.

CHAIRMAN THOMAS: See, the quandary or dilemma I'm having right now is -- is resulting from how this was dealt with previously. Like you heard Mr. Knauer explain to us the other day, it was drafted and reported by the same person, and responded to by the person that wrote the letter, see, and we're moving from that now. We're trying to -- we're trying to get into doing it like it was designed to in the first place. It just hasn't happened up to now. And that's why I say, I guess I'd like to see some previous reports. I've had them but I don't have a way of keeping that much paper around the house. So that we can craft our -- Bill.

MR. KNAUER: Mr. Chairman, the whole aspect of an annual report is permissive. ANILCA and our regulations provide the authority or opportunity for this council to do such. In that light, the annual report can essentially contain what you want it to contain.

CHAIRMAN THOMAS: Okay.

MR. KNAUER: And that -- it can address particular -- it can focus very narrowly on resource issues or concerns such as a management plan or habitat or a particular species or it can be broader. That's at the prerogative of your council -- how you wish to have it.

MR. CLARK: Mr. Chairman, the annual report can also be a good forum for the council to express its displeasure with the way the process is going. Dolly's concern about not being able to deal with fisheries could be brought up, or any other administrative or policy concerns that the council may have.

MR. RABINOWITCH: Two points. One, just the other day in Anchorage at the meeting that you were at, but occurring after you had left -- after we had conducted business for the council, the board did get some information similar to what you've heard about past process and some of the inadequacies. So I think it is safe to predict that the board is going to pay a little more attention this time around. So I think that's a positive -- hopefully a positive change will start to occur.

CHAIRMAN THOMAS: I think so.

MR. RABINOWITCH: And the board was all there and heard it and I think there were nods of consensus that "Yeah, we need to do better."

CHAIRMAN THOMAS: Uh-huh (affirmative).

MR. RABINOWITCH: So I think that's a small sign of a -- it's hopefully a small step coming. The other now, in terms of the suggestion that you were just asking for, a moment ago, several of you spoke about Katie -- Katie John. One thing you could consider doing in your report is being as specific as you might wish with what kind of involvement relative to implementation of the Katie John decision which is, as you all know, not yet in hand and it may be soon or it may be still a few years away. But without doubt, if the court continues on the track that it's on, there will be some new regulations having to do with subsistence fish management. I think that's -- that's very clear. So in the development -- where I'm going is, that in the development of regulations, there's lots of ways to do that. One way is for people like us to sit away -- you know, at far away desks and write them all up and say here, you know, bring them to you -- "What do you think?" You're pretty familiar with And the other way is perhaps have councils like that. yourselves a little more involved in helping to develop them. I'm just trying to present...

MR. RABINOWITCH: ...both ends of the spectrum to -- if you have suggestions to the council about how you would want to participate in that, that might, you know, might be something that could yield some results. It's just suggestions.

CHAIRMAN THOMAS: I'm glad -- I'm glad to hear this about the board. I was so pleased with the results of our involvement there that I felt a reward by leaving early. But what Sandy's saying -- and I've heard more than one time from members of the Federal The Federal Subsistence Board is Subsistence Board. essentially comprised of managers or directors or bosses of the various federal agencies in Alaska. Service, Fish and Wildlife Service, Forest Service, Land Management and BIA. And at the meeting, when some of the issues get really involved, there's some of the members that are closer to this process than others. And some of them, the only time they're introduced to this is when they come to the meeting. And they'll say that, you know, "I have another job to do" and "I don't have" -- "I haven't had this much time to become this familiar with this issue."

So, they really do rely on the stuff that we bring them. It's not like we're taking -- we're bringing our stuff to a well-informed group to make a comparison of wisdom. That's not the case. And so, I'm saying that to -- for us to have the courage to take on or to be more comfortable with more responsibility. I'm not saying that we haven't been doing a good job; we've been doing an outstanding job, but we just need to keep that up. But the board really does depend on our input. And if you read -- if you familiarize yourself with Title 8, you'll see where that needs to happen.

There's a stranger in our community. He's from another corporation, but Jim is our -- my old friend has been involved in subsistence forever. I want to introduce Jim Martinez from Klawock.

MR. MARTINEZ: May I speak, Mr. Chairman?

CHAIRMAN THOMAS: Yes, Jim.

MR. MARTINEZ: I was just wondering, you know, since this is a subsistence board, I was wondering why Klawock wasn't included. My wife -- since that's a Native community and all the Natives should have an

MR. MARTINEZ: You know, like I say, look -- I look around but I don't see nobody from Klawock here. You know, this is what I'm wondering. You know, I think -- I think that the Native people are -- should have a say in the this, regardless of what they got up there, -- in the morning, that when you guys have the meeting, it should be held there, you know. You said that there was going to be a meeting. I went to the Seventh Day Adventist's last night seeing if you guys were there and you guys weren't. And you guys got three days of meetings and it looked like all three days of meetings has been in Klawock -- I mean in Craig here.

CHAIRMAN THOMAS: That's true. We spent -- we spent a summer trying to establish a meeting in Klawock.

MS. LE CORNU: That's right.

MR. MARTINEZ: Well, why didn't you call somebody like me? I'm the president of Tlingit and Haida communities.

CHAIRMAN THOMAS: I don't set up the meetings.

MR. MARTINEZ: Well, somebody -- somebody better ask these guys to set up a meeting in a place where there -- there's subsistence, you know. I know -- I understand that Craig is -- Craig is -- most of these people here are users. We're subsistence users up there.

CHAIRMAN THOMAS: None of these people are from Craig.

MR. MARTINEZ: Or wherever they're from.

CHAIRMAN THOMAS: All these people are part of the process. They're agencies' representatives. Do you have a representative from Klawock?

LTD COURT REPORTERS

MR. MARTINEZ: I'm the president of the Tlingit and Haida community council up there.

CHAIRMAN THOMAS: I understand. Dewey Skan is the appointed member of this council from Klawock.

MR. MARTINEZ: That's right.

CHAIRMAN THOMAS: And we're always looking for ways to improve. You know, we meet in different communities. The last time we met in Hoonah. We don't meet in the same place every time.

MR. MARTINEZ: Yeah, well, I suppose you're going to say now that you met here in Craig, you're going to say well, we've met there in the Southeast in Craig and Klawock is only a few miles away. You ought to know our Native people by now. They don't come down here to the meeting.

CHAIRMAN THOMAS: Settle -- settle down, Jim. There's no need for all that. We're in South -- this is a Southeast region. This is not a statewide council.

MR. MARTINEZ: You mean Klawock -- Klawock isn't southeast region?

CHAIRMAN THOMAS: I didn't say that. When I say region, I mean region. Southeast. I know Klawock's in Southeast. That's part of the region. We have a responsibility to them. At the same time, they have a responsib- -- this process now is going into its third year. And I don't know what we need to do to involve the communities. And, you know, you come down as one person. And I don't know if anybody else knows you're here.

MR. MARTINEZ: Yeah, I don't think nobody does, you know.

CHAIRMAN THOMAS: See. So -- but what I'm saying is that we tried -- we tried to establish a meeting in Klawock. We couldn't. The people that were involved with this couldn't find a contact person. We were given names to contact and those people were out fishing. That's the word we got. Okay, a meeting like this involves probably 30 people to travel from different parts of the state and different parts of Southeast. They have to they have to make arrangements with their various offices. There's information we've got to have. It's not like calling a special committee meeting in a small town, where you say, "Come on you guys, we're going to meet at 3 o'clock." We can't do that.

MR. MARTINEZ: Sir, I understand that. I understand that the board -- that you guys were elected or appointed by -- by the interior -- Secretary of the Interior to -- to kind of look after the Native people and their subsistence. And what I'm saying is that so far, nobody in Klawock knows that the meeting's here. I was lucky last night that I found out that the meeting was going to be here. You'd have more people here if they did.

MS. GARZA: Mr. Chairman?

CHAIRMAN THOMAS: Dolly.

MS. GARZA: I think that -- you know, I think in large part, Jimmy, you are certainly justified to be upset. The invitation to hold a meeting here in Craig was made by someone who doesn't even live here. And if it were made by Vicki or if it were made by Dewey, both representatives on this council, I think they would have taken the effort to make sure that the island was invited and informed. But the person who invited us here doesn't live here and then he didn't have any follow-through.

MR. MARTINEZ: Well, I guess -- I guess Klawock doesn't -- doesn't have the representation it should have.

MS. GARZA: Well, you need to talk to Dewey about that.

(Mr. Martinez leaves)

MS. PHILLIPS: Mr. Chair, point of order.

CHAIRMAN THOMAS: Patty?

MS. PHILLIPS: Point of order, could we get back to our annual report?

CHAIRMAN THOMAS: Yeah.

MS. PHILLIPS: I was thinking that you brought up the annual report as written in ANILCA that we could

LTD COURT REPORTERS

294 use these four guidelines as a part of an outline and 2 that each of these four issues be addressed in a 3 paragraph form and then the council could add on other 4 issues that they want to address. And I think that 5 this council should participate as much time as was 6 written in this letter that's going to Senator Stevens. 7 8 CHAIRMAN THOMAS: You mean, to commit that time 9 to the annual report... 10 11 MS. PHILLIPS: Yes. 12 13 CHAIRMAN THOMAS: ...from here? It's 10 o'clock. 14 Mim? 15 16 Just for future consideration, it MS. ROBINSON: 17 seems to me that annual reports should be discussed at the beginning of the fall meeting and then set aside 18 19 time throughout the three days to deal with it so that 20 it's not left on a situation like this. 21 22 CHAIRMAN THOMAS: Yeah? 23 24 MR. ANDERSON: Mr. Chairman, I would think that 25 each individual council member should come prepared to 26 submit their region's annual report at the beginning of 27

the fall meeting which -- I know I was reading through the minutes here and before, we had left it up to the coordinator to do basically our job. And, of course, that lends to confusion.

CHAIRMAN THOMAS: Would it be of any help if we made copies of my chairman's report, reporting on some of the activities around? Would that be helpful in your crafting...

> MS. ROBINSON: Sure.

MS. ROBINSON: Sure. Anything to start with.

CHAIRMAN THOMAS: Sure.

MS. ROBINSON: Yeah.

MS. LE CORNU: Mr. Chair?

CHAIRMAN THOMAS: Vicki.

MS. LE CORNU: I'd like our annual that we do have a responsibility to subsistence users here in this region -- well, from where I'm -- on the island, I guess. That the major uses of sub -- for their subsistence lifestyle are fish. So this is the major portion of their subsistence that we're considering and we need to be responsible to it.

CHAIRMAN THOMAS: That's true. I have to mention, regarding Klawock's expressed frustration with this. That's a good reminder of how we need to impress on people in this region that they are in fact -- we're attempting to represent them the best that we can. Dewey's here. Vicki's here. There's not that much uniqueness between the communities on Prince of Wales to where that anything that we do here wouldn't benefit Klawock as well, so. I just wanted you to understand that. So...

MS. WILSON: Mr. Chairman?

CHAIRMAN THOMAS: Marilyn.

MS. WILSON: This might be a little bit off the subject but that's what this council's for. There was a man that came here earlier and mentioned his concerns and he doesn't know the process whereas we do. And did he come to anybody for help to make a proposal or did anybody approach him to help him?

CHAIRMAN THOMAS: Yeah, we did. Yep.

MS. WILSON: I wanted to know.

CHAIRMAN THOMAS: We had -- they had all of our talents at his disposal if he wanted it and he knew that. We let him know. Mim?

MS. ROBINSON: Yeah, I've -- when Jim was talking there about knowing about this meeting, I was talking with Dennis Watson yesterday and he didn't -- he had just found out about it. He wasn't even sure exactly where we were meeting or what days or anything. And I'm just wondering what -- what process was followed in notification. You know, newspapers, radio, notices posted. What was done to advertise this meeting? Does anyone know?

MR. CLARK: Mr. Chairman -- and Bill, you may be able to help me out on this and Rachel too, I think, since you're more intimate with the operations of the Fish and Wildlife Service office. But there were

LTD COURT REPORTERS

1 advertisements in all the community newspapers. 2 3 MS. ROBINSON: How long ago? 4 5 MR. CLARK: Last... 6 7 MS. GARZA: For weeks. 8 It's been for weeks it's been 9 MS. ROBINSON: 10 announced? 11 12 MR. CLARK: It's been out. There were radio spots 13 that were obtained. There were packages of these bright posters that you've seen. Those were sent out 14 15 to each of the ranger districts. And I called each of 16 the ranger districts, asking for their assistance in 17 distributing those posters among the community and 18 getting those out. I think ... 19 20 MS. ROBINSON: Were those posted in this -- Dave 21 or... 22 23 MR. JOHNSON: Mr. Chairman? 24 25 CHAIRMAN THOMAS: Dave. 26 27 MR. JOHNSON: Those posters -- I personally had 28 those posted in the A&P store in Klawock, in the post 29 office in Klawock and in Black Bear, which is a place 30 that people frequent very often in Klawock. 31 process was used here. We had posters posted in 32 Thompson House, in the post office and at, I believe it 33 was Lacy's Pizza, and also in City Hall. 34 35 CHAIRMAN THOMAS: Dale? 36 37 I also gave a handful over to the MR. KANEN: 38 Aaron Isaacs who covers A&P in Klawock as well as on 39 the council with the local IRA. 40 41 CHAIRMAN THOMAS: Yeah. No, we, you know... 42 43 MS. MR. CAPRA: Mr. Chairman?

CHAIRMAN THOMAS: Yes.

MR. CAPRA: One other thing we heard that I also heard off our public radio, which is out of Sitka. I heard it announced on there.

CHAIRMAN THOMAS: Yeah, so, you know, -- you know, there's some communities...

 $\ensuremath{\mathsf{MS}}\xspace$. ROBINSON: People hear what they want to hear.

CHAIRMAN THOMAS: There's some communities that have been around fish farming too long. The only time they move is when they see a hand come up with fish pellets. And that's the kind of mentality they take on some times. So we got to deal with that, so -- Vicki?

MS. LE CORNU: I just wanted to remind people, I know Fred made a really good attempt at getting Klawock because I wanted it to happen in Craig but I was quite willing to see it happen in Klawock. I would rather have had it happen in Klawock. But I think that attempts were made to contact people and we -- you can't contact every organization.

CHAIRMAN THOMAS: The first of September -- around there -- I was in Anchorage. I said, "How's our -- how's our meetings going?" And he said, "Well, I haven't been able to contact anybody in Klawock and then they said they're all full." I said, "Well, schedule it for Craig." I said, "Go to Craig." I said, "We don't have the luxury of jockeying everything from one place to the next." So, you know, we had to have some lead time, so that's how it wound up here. You know, we got to be -- a month lead time isn't too much.

MR. SCHENK: Mr. Chairman, we've had the similar problem with our Fish and Game Advisory Committee meetings out here and some of the other public meetings. And the only thing we've done in addition to what's been done already is we used the TV scanner and putting an ad on that. That seemed to help get more turnout because a lot of people see that on TV. Just a, you know, maybe a point of information or suggestion of it was utilized.

LTD COURT REPORTERS

CHAIRMAN THOMAS: If it's not associated with T&A and they're not going to watch it anyway.

MS. ROBINSON: It's a good idea though.

MR. ANDERSON: John, it looks like you have a PR situation.

MR. FELLER: Oh, yeah. Anticipating. (Laughter) But we only have Wrangell.

MS. ROBINSON: Better not drop the ball, John.

MR. ANDERSON; Be forewarned.

CHAIRMAN THOMAS: Patty?

MS. PHILLIPS: Mr. Chair, it's just, you know, when you see this sense of frustration and so much of our Native community feel that way. And I feel that way, myself. But I'm on this council to represent these people and I have to fight that frustration as I'm doing now. But we can't feel bad because we didn't hold the meeting in Klawock. We have to continue on with our diligence...

CHAIRMAN THOMAS: Exactly.

MS. PHILLIPS: ...and our persistence to maintain the subsistence lifestyle.

MS. ROBINSON: That's right.

CHAIRMAN THOMAS: Exactly. That's the difference between discipline and lack of discipline. Plain and simple. Thank you, Patty. We all share the same feelings on that.

MS. RUDOLPH: Mr. Chairman, I think we're went through the same thing with Hoonah when they had the meeting there. Short of maybe going from house to house to inform the people. And then when you do inform them, they're too busy, it's the wrong time and then after it was all over, everybody was frustrated and said, "Well, how come we didn't -- weren't kept informed? What does this committee do? What does this board do? What can they do for us?" But they want to give you a day by day, sentence by sentence of what this board is trying to do. So, the frustration you feel right now, I think, is something we're going to have to deal with all the time.

LTD COURT REPORTERS

CHAIRMAN THOMAS: But the thing about it is, I think we've established a chemistry dynamic. I think we all -- we're all sharing the same commitment; we all want the same results. And I don't think anybody here is really feeling different about anything. And I think we're fortunate to have that. And it's only going to be persevering diligence that's going to pay off. If we crumble to that, then everybody loses.

MS. WILSON: Mr. Chairman? Oh. Were you going to give us copies?

CHAIRMAN THOMAS: You scared me, yeah. I didn't want...

(Laughter)

MS. WILSON: Were you going to give us copies of your report?

CHAIRMAN THOMAS: Yeah, I didn't want to touch it after (indiscernible - unclear).

MS. WILSON: I wonder if we could just divide up into committees and start writing and then come all together and put our ideas together into a one sheet report.

MS. ROBINSON: Maybe the people working on that letter can be working on the letter and others can be working on the annual report. When we're done with the letter, we can work on the annual report.

CHAIRMAN THOMAS: I think we'll take a five-minute break.

(Off record - 10:41 a.m.) (On record - 10:48 a.m.)

CHAIRMAN THOMAS: We want to deal with our documents now. You guys want to -- if you could, give me some idea on what your druthers are on when and how we deal with this report? Are we going to take -- are we going to submit our own input for compilation into a letter or what?

MS. ROBINSON: We're looking over here.

CHAIRMAN THOMAS: Maybe what we'll do -- what we'll probably do, Fred, is in the event that we don't get input from everybody, we'll go ahead and go forward with a report and before we submit it, we'll fax it to whoever's got faxes or mail it to them if they don't have faxes.

LTD COURT REPORTERS

MR. CLARK: Right.

 CHAIRMAN THOMAS: So that -- so that if there's any heartburn or anything that needs to be added or changed can happen. Dolly?

MS. GARZA: I guess the way I see it set up in terms of organization and it's fairly similar to your report, Mr. Chairman is a little bit on the past, you know, the creation; who's seated on the board; the ANILCA responsibilities; the fact that the coordinator has changed; what we've done in the last year -- and that was the information at the Hoonah meeting. not sure what designates the year to whether or not we would discuss what we did at this meeting. And then a section on the future -- that we need to look at fisheries. That would be the statement that, I think, both Vicki and I, at least, would like to have included. That we will need to look at C&T on a much broader scale and that, like you mentioned earlier, that we are ready to assume greater responsibilities.

MR. CLARK: Mr. Chairman. I would suggest that in the annual report, you want to put as much up-to-date information as you can. And then in your later report, you may refer back to that report. You know, like for this meeting (indiscernible - unclear).

CHAIRMAN THOMAS: It asks for recommendations and strategies and this, so we can incorporate a lot.

MR. CLARK: Mr. Chairman, I would just like to ask the council if everybody's filled out that little form that I sent out to make sure I have everybody's current fax numbers and telephone numbers and stuff like that so as it's developed, we make sure everybody has all the information.

MS. GARZA: Did I give you mine?

MR. CLARK: I believe so.

MS. GARZA: Okay, because I can't find it. I hope I did.

MR. CLARK: I'll check in my pile here in a

LTD COURT REPORTERS

1 minute. 2 3 Okay. CHAIRMAN THOMAS: 4 5 MS. ROBINSON: It's awfully cold in here. 6 7 MS. GARZA: Put your coat on. 8 9 MR. ANDERSON: Well, come over here. (Laughter) 10 Subsistence. 11 12 MS. ROBINSON: Lonnie, you're blushing. 13 14 MR. ANDERSON: That was the heat. 15 16 CHAIRMAN THOMAS: So am I. 17 18 MS. ROBINSON: Thank you, Dolly. 19 20 MS. GARZA: It's cracked, so just for air. Ιf 21 that's too much, let me know. 22 23 MS. ROBINSON: No, I can feel a difference 24 already. 25 26 MS. PHILLIPS: Mr. Chair, at our last meeting, 27 Mr. Vale made a motion that we draft a letter to the 28 various organizations around Southeast -- Native 29 organizations, corporations, city governments --30 expressing to them that we ask them to identify 31 important subsistence issues in their communities. 32 then we could look at that information when we take up 33 our annual report. And I just asked Fred if he -- you 34 know, if he knew anything about a -- this -- a letter 35 being done and he said, no, he had no idea of a letter 36 being done. 37 38 What page is that in there, Patty? MS. ROBINSON: 39 40 MS. PHILLIPS: Well, page 37. That was a 41 suggestion and then it was made into a motion. 42 43 I don't have that. MS. WILSON: 44 45 MR. CLARK: Mr. Chairman, I might also add that 46 I've not been able to thoroughly go through the files 47 that were left in that office. 48 CHAIRMAN THOMAS: We can still do that. 49 still do that. It's an excellent approach and a good 50 reminder. It's actually an excellent reminder but I just wanted to leave that good for now, so -- that's a lot of correspondence but that's the way to go. we can get that kind of feedback from communities, it would really -- would really be a help. MS. ROBINSON: Yeah, it would. MS. GARZA: Can you do that? MR. CLARK: Certainly. MS. GARZA: Okay. MS. ROBINSON: You know, one thing -- Mr. Chairman? CHAIRMAN THOMAS: Mim. MS. ROBINSON: One thing I wrote on my -- that paper that Fred just asked -- that he wanted to make sure we all turned in -- on the bottom of that, I commented that I would like to see copies of any correspondence that we have requested the coordinator -- the draft or anything, but I want to see the or the chairman write and send. I don't have to see it — the draft or anything, but I want to see the finished copy so that I know that it's been done and what it said, just for my own information purposes. And this is a good example of why that needs to happen. You know, this was something that we definitely passed a motion on and it should have been done and, you know, — so anyway, I don't know how we go about guaranteeing that that happens but...

LTD COURT REPORTERS

CHAIRMAN THOMAS: Well, this is -- this is a little bit of assurance because that part of the information has been available to us and we don't have to look through reams of paper to find it. So that's helpful.

MS. ROBINSON: Yeah, but just how do we go about making sure that we get copies of things? I mean, I don't -- is there any way to get that in writing, you know, I mean...

CHAIRMAN THOMAS: What do you mean by "things:?

MS. ROBINSON: Letters, reports, whatever. Like this -- like this thing,...

MS. LE CORNU: Letters to communities.

LTD COURT REPORTERS

MS. ROBINSON: ...this letter to the communities. 2 That -- I would like to make sure that I see a copy of 3 that letter after it's been written. 4 5 CHAIRMAN THOMAS: Okav. 6 7 MS. ROBINSON: And any other thing -- is there --8 is there any other correspondence we've -- it seems to 9 me we wanted Bill to write a letter yesterday about 10 something. Does anyone remember what that was? 11 it's things like that. So I think we need to keep a 12 list of what... 13 14 CHAIRMAN THOMAS: Isn't that the one you and I 15 did? I think we were a committee of two on that one. 16 17 MS. ROBINSON: No, that's something else. 18 was -- there was a letter that we wanted Bill to write 19 for us yesterday. 20 21 MS. PHILLIPS: No, there was -- Mr. Chair? 22 23 CHAIRMAN THOMAS: Patty. 24 25 MS. PHILLIPS: If you wrote a letter -- you know, 26 using your own stationery but putting your -- with your 27 name... 28 29 CHAIRMAN THOMAS: All right. 30 31 MS. PHILLIPS: ...Bill Thomas, Chairman of --32 that would be helpful, you know, to see letters of --33 well, since you are chair. But I heard it was a good 34 letter, I haven't read it myself. 35 36 CHAIRMAN THOMAS: What I did was, when 37 Murkowski's bill, 1059... 38 39 UNIDENTIFIED: 1054. 40 41 CHAIRMAN THOMAS: 1054. When they had a workshop 42 in Ketchikan, I hammered out a statement on my personal letterhead but I signed it and identified myself as a 43 44 chairman of this council, see. 45 46 Now see, copies of those should go MS. ROBINSON: 47 out to the council members, I think. 48

LTD COURT REPORTERS

CHAIRMAN THOMAS: Okay. Okay. That -- now, remember when I had that self-evaluation one year,

1 2 MS. ROBINSON: That's something you need to know. 3 4 CHAIRMAN THOMAS: That's the kind of information 5 I was looking for, see. 6 7 MS. ROBINSON: Right. Okay. 8 9 CHAIRMAN THOMAS: And then we can do that. 10 11 MR. CLARK: I have copies of that. 12 13 MS. ROBINSON: Do you? 14 15 MR. CLARK: Blank copies of the self-16 evaluation... 17 18 MS. ROBINSON: Okay. 19 20 MR. CLARK: ...should you want to do that again. 21 22 MS. ROBINSON: Oh. 23 24 CHAIRMAN THOMAS: No, I think that carry over's 25 been very successful. 26 27 MS. ROBINSON: Uh-huh (affirmative). 28 29 CHAIRMAN THOMAS: But that's a good point and I'm 30 glad to hear that because I didn't know -- since we 31 didn't meet on it and since I didn't identify it as 32 council action. But I agree, it's good for you guys to 33 see because some of them might come back to bite me 34 sometime... 35 36 MS. ROBINSON: Sure. 37 38 CHAIRMAN THOMAS: ...and then you guys will know 39 that. 40 41 MS. ROBINSON: Well, basically I -- in any 42 council or board or anything like that -- things should 43 not be -- basically I think things should not --44 letters should not go out unless the council knows 45 what's going to be said because you're representing the 46 council. However, I'm willing -- I trust you and I'm 47 willing to go ahead and give you that leeway, but I 48 want to see later... 49 50 CHAIRMAN THOMAS: Oh, yeah.

MS. ROBINSON: ...what you've written.

CHAIRMAN THOMAS: My letter said that I represented myself.

MS. ROBINSON: Okay.

CHAIRMAN THOMAS: And I did. I represented myself, but I did identify myself as the chairman.

MS. ROBINSON: Yeah. Yeah. But by doing that, you also are bringing us into it, so...

CHAIRMAN THOMAS: I wasn't going to go down alone. (Laughter)

MR. ANDERSON: Good boy.

MS. WILSON: Mr. Chairman?

CHAIRMAN THOMAS: Marilyn.

MS. WILSON: When I was reading over that report from the public hearings on the Kenai C&T, there was a lot of derogatory and negative things about the councils that were representing subsistence users and it goes to show you how negative a lot of people -- or how ignorant a lot of people are about what goes on. And I was wondering how each of us, as a council member, could improve this -- this negative viewing of us as a working council. Like I at home, I don't do that much to involve everybody. And like, I belong to the Fish and Game -- State Fish and Game Advisory Committee, but we haven't had any meetings and they haven't been taking care of subsistence issues at all, of course.

CHAIRMAN THOMAS: There's -- those are good points and something I would like to again say is that -- the difference between discipline and no discipline. We hear in different areas, in church, in school, about role models. Essentially, that's what we are in this. And we're just going to have to maintain that. The first time we allow ourselves to get caught up in the same the same emotional expressions as everybody else, then we're into a losing battle. Dolly?

MS. GARZA: Mr. Chairman, my job is with the University of Alaska, with the marine advisory program. It's marine education and one of the areas that I do focus on is subsistence education and in the last, you know, six years I've gathered slides that serve to educate people about contemporary uses of subsistence in urban Southeast. And that's exactly what I'm trying to do, Marilyn, is to show people the value of seaweed gathering, of herring egg gathering, you know, of And to give people an idea of what it smoking fish. means -- that it still exists not just in rural Alaska and it isn't just a meat on the table thing but it's cultural, it's society, you know, it's a good lifestyle. And perhaps what we should consider as this council -- I would be willing to bring these slides to the next meeting and show them -- is try and put together something bigger. If all of you can bring slides or pictures, maybe we can get something bigger together. What the UAF museum did for me was they took a small portion of that and turned it into a video that they now use at that museum. And I think that's the kinds of things we have to do, is hit little pockets of education here and there where people will pick it up and say, "Oh, that's what it means." And maybe -- at that time we consider doing like a two or three page, this is what subsistence in Southeast is. And have some nice pretty pictures and get a grant from the Forest Service or somebody and put it in our words, not in agency words but as council member words.

MS. WILSON: That sounds good.

CHAIRMAN THOMAS: Thank you, Bill. I did happen to find a copy of correspondence that I -- I'm sorry, I was involved in another -- I got a call from Deb in Pelican and so just based on information she gave me, I put that together and then I sent her a copy of that. And I just happen to have one in my briefcase. I usually get a dollar and a half a piece for them but these will be complimentary copies to you guys. Hank.

MR. NEWHOUSE: Mr. Chairman, I strongly support what Dolly has suggested to...

CHAIRMAN THOMAS: By all means.

MR. NEWHOUSE: ...raise the visibility of what the council is doing here in Southeast.

CHAIRMAN THOMAS: By all means.

MR. NEWHOUSE: Whatever vehicle -- whether we -- whether to ask for a grant or something like that to even -- for somebody to come in and enhance that documentation. To even take a series of video the council in action doing their duties and then all aspects of that, and showing how it all works together. And that would be just an excellent way to communicate with the people here in Southeast Alaska.

MS. GARZA: Does the Forest Service have that kind of grant money available? Somebody just say yes. (Laughter)

CHAIRMAN THOMAS: Patty.

MS. PHILLIPS: I would suggest that we -- like a public -- a public notice or a -- I'm not sure what it's called, but we send it on to Heartbeat Alaska and to that -- the Native man, Gary, who does Native news...

MS. GARZA: Gary Fife.

MS. PHILLIPS: Gary Fife. And so they -- so that the commun- -- the public can be aware of what we're doing after -- after we meet because it doesn't go anywhere. So if we can make -- and all across Alaska people are hearing about it. What is that called -- a press release.

MR. NEWHOUSE: I'm a little bit disappointed because Jerry Holt (ph) was supposed to have been in attendance at this meeting and I don't know what happened. Maybe the day that he was flying out was the day we had the bad weather and he changed his mind --just got involved with that. But he was going to do --and if he would have been here and done some of the interviews that what would have happened, this meeting would have been on Alaska Native News, a program that he does. And I'm disappointed that he wasn't able to make it.

CHAIRMAN THOMAS: Sandy.

MR. RABINOWITCH: Another suggestion that you might follow up on -- I'd suggest that perhaps through Fred -- that he contact Taylor Brelsford, who works for Fish and Wildlife in the subsistence program and is the Chief of Planning and Public Involvement for the subsistence program. And just explore the possibilities within -- as a lead federal agency with the Fish and Wildlife Services to see if they could also bring some resources to bear on the very point that you're talking about. Public people with money. I don't know whether they can or not, it's not my agency but I think it's another place to seek some assistance.

MS. GARZA: I think that all you guys should be required to be sworn to secrecy because this was our idea first. So you can't go to another council meeting

MR. TUREK: Mr. Chairman, Mike Turek from the Division of Subsistence, Southeast Region, so we'd be more than happy to work with you on that. All of our resources that we have in our offices are available to you. Photographs and other things — videos. And we would be more than happy to work with — I think it's an excellent idea that Dolly brought up. That's just the kind that we'd like to be doing so we'd be more than happy to work with you on that.

and say (Laughter) -- we get first dibs at granting.

MS. GARZA: Maybe you and I could talk about it when you come over to Sitka?

MR. TUREK: Sure, yeah.

CHAIRMAN THOMAS: I was just going to request of you, Dolly, for you to do that. Thank you.

MS. GARZA: Uh-huh (affirmative).

CHAIRMAN THOMAS: Mr. Knauer?

MR. KNAUER: Mr. Chairman, the Federal Subsistence Program does have a brochure about the program that's a little old now but it's still got a lot of good information. We would be more than happy to provide each of the council members with multiple copies so that if they go to a community meeting or a rotary or a...

MS. WILSON: ANB convention.

MR. KNAUER: ...Lions or whatever, you could -- you know, you could pass them out or it would be available to put in a local office.

MS. GARZA: Distribute.

CHAIRMAN THOMAS: Distribute. Distribute.

MR. KNAUER: Yes, Mr. Chair.

MS. WILSON: How about a bunch of copies for the ANB and ANS conventions? That would get it out to all the communities.

LTD COURT REPORTERS

4 5

MS. MASON: Mr. Chairman?

CHAIRMAN THOMAS: Rachel.

MS. MASON: I just want to go on record to say I will help put together the program.

CHAIRMAN THOMAS: Thank you. And in reference to what Marilyn was just now suggesting, she mentioned that Grand Camp would be a good place to distribute that information. And Grand Camp is occurring in Hydaburg the third week...

MS. WILSON: The 12th.

CHAIRMAN THOMAS: The 12th. The week of the 12th of November. And that's usually attended by all the communities in Southeast and the delegation is right around 120 people. With the observers and everything, it's usually around 200 people. Some of you have been to Grand Camp in Juneau and other places, so.

MS. GARZA: Well, the other -- the communities we're missing are communities such as PA and Point Baker and Elfin Cove. They generally don't attend Grant Camp, so we'll need to think of another forum.

CHAIRMAN THOMAS: You guys don't have an ANB camp in Port Alexander?

MS. ROBINSON: We gather subsistence though.

CHAIRMAN THOMAS: Okay, are we essentially satisfied with the guidance and anticipations we have now for crafting -- for further correspondence and documents?

MS. ROBINSON: Fred's still looking to see what it was that we had asked you to write yesterday. Well, actually, he's working on something else right now, I think, but he was looking.

MR. CLARK: Yes, we seem to have lost the letter. Not the whole thing but -- or the modifications that we put in this morning. Do you have those written down?

MS. ROBINSON: Well, no, not really.

LTD COURT REPORTERS

MS. GARZA: Oh, we were going to -- he was going 2 to write a letter to Hoonah -- Hoonah tribe and say we 3 support the effort. 4 5 MS. ROBINSON: Was that -- was that -- I thought 6 of that, but I thought there was something -- it was 7 something else. 8 9 MS. GARZA: I don't think so. 10 11 MS. ROBINSON: 32 33 CHAIRMAN THOMAS: I know -- I know... 34 35 MS. ROBINSON: ...piece it back together. 36 37 ...that people are leaving at CHAIRMAN THOMAS: 38 different times and I would like to give you an opportunity, again, for comment. I like to make 39 40 provisions for public -- like I said, if you're from an 41 agency, you're not part of the public in this case. 42 And I have made provisions for everybody to have an 43 opportunity to comment or to maybe share some of their 44 observations regarding the meeting or maybe just some 45 of your own individual thoughts. So, before we do 46 that, I want to express to you how appreciative I am of 47 all of you that have really been involved in this. 48 was more than posturing, it was sincere. And I think we're going to wind up with a good product as a result 49

and a product that's not going to be limited to this region. I think it's something that's going to benefit, in many ways, the rest of the regions in Alaska. And I'm -- I'm real proud to say that. With that, we'll extend our courtesies of expression to the State first. If you have no comment, just say no comment. Millie?

 MS. STEVENS: Bill, can I comment and say something? I'm on my way to work and I wanted to say something...

 $\mbox{\sc COURT}$ REPORTER: You need to come up to the microphone.

MS. STEVENS: Change of atmosphere, huh?

MR. ANDERSON: No fried bread this morning?

MS. STEVENS: I didn't get up at 6 o'clock, thank you. Well, good morning everyone. I've certainly enjoyed having you all here. I'm sorry we didn't have more local participation but there's a lot of things happening on our island that people weren't able to make it. I've been making phone calls.

One of the things I want to comment on is the Eleven Mile issue. I have been to numerous, numerous, numerous meetings. And I don't know if we have to plant a goshawk or whatever they call those things or a spotted owl in that area or come up with a new tribe that's goshawk or white owl -- but this issue is very dear to our hearts here on Prince of Wales. That has been a subsistence area since long before I came around.

And I just -- for the life of me, I cannot figure out why our subsistence is always set on the back burner. This is -- this is a way of life with us. This is part of us. It's like if we were farmers and they took our cows and our chickens away, you know, how are those people going to feel? We live off the land.

I take care of my elderly parents. The bulk of our diet is our traditional foods. If I were to take the traditional foods away from my parents, they're not going to want to eat anymore. It's the traditional foods that we've eaten all of our lives.

I have family that live in the Lower 48 that every now and then, we send a care package. And they share with all the Alaska Natives that live in their area. When I lived in Seattle and my parents sent me care package, everyone I knew came to my house. You know, it's stuff that we're accustomed to and I just -- I cannot believe that that area eventually is going to get logged. I mean, you might as well kill all of us off and get it over with. You know, I just feel that we can come to some type of compromise. It's been talked about -- the large percentage of timber that's been cut on Prince of Wales -- why don't they move somewhere else? Why is it Prince of Wales?

We have feelings; we have concerns; we share our traditional foods; we don't waste any of our traditional foods. Everything is utilized. For the --I moved back home in 1986 and I don't know how much prior to '86 that they started logging in this area, but it just seems odd that since we've had all new people come to the island -- I've been out hunting numerous times and found a deer with just the hindquarter gone. You know, and it just -- I can't believe that someone would just take the hindquarters. I mean we -- we use the hide; we use everything. Everything. We've been taught to respect the land, to respect food, to respect people. People come in and they, you know -- our land is just -- our natural resources are being taken away from us. And it's like we have our hands tied.

We have all these rules and regulations. I don't have a problem with rules and regulations, but it needs to apply to everyone. When we do our subsistence fishing for sockeye in the Klawock Inlet, the Fish and Game people are there, they're breathing down our necks. And yet, our sea cucumber, (indiscernible - unclear) has been commercialized in this area. Do you see those guys out there checking on the commercial guys? They are in our subsistence areas. And yet, when we complain, they look at us like we're nuts.

I have a hard time because then it comes down to a prejudice issue. The Natives against the non-Natives. You know, we all live here. I think we should all share and I think that the rules and regulations should apply to everyone. I don't care what color your skin is. Everyone should abide by the law and that's not happening. So when this happens —the local Natives see this happen — naturally, their guards are up and they're pointing the finger. And I just — you know, I can't stress enough — I don't know, as Native people, what we can do to protect our traditional areas.

LTD COURT REPORTERS

You know, Marlene Sprigg (ph) and I said when they -- if they ever commercial seaweed, we're going to be out there with our shotguns, you know, because everything else in this area -- the Prince of Wales Island is such a unique area. We can go get gumboots; we can get clams; we can get seaweed; we can get deer; we can get fish; we can get seal. You know, everything is right here. You know, all the foods that we've enjoyed from way back when and now a lot of non-Natives are enjoying it and that's fine, but I have a problem with the waste. I have a problem with the subsistence -- where we're watched and the commercial people can come and go as they please. I have a problem with the Lower 48 people that come here, make money off our resources and that money is not spent here on this And I -- you island. It's -- they take it south. know, I attend all the meetings that I possibly can. sit on the city council; I sit on every committee on this island to give my input, not just only for the Natives, for the people of this island. And I -- you know, I just don't know what more we can do. know how we can stress or if go find a spotted owl set it out there and if it'll even stay at Eleven Mile.

But I couldn't leave without giving you all my concern. And I just hope that we can come to some type of compromise. I thought we did come to a compromise when we were going to the meetings in Klawock. And I understand there's a few people in Klawock that were unaware that you all were here on the island and they're bent out of shape because Klawock says that they're more traditional than we are in Craig. You know, when I was growing up we were a majority and now we're a minority.

And, like I said earlier, there's a lot of things happening on the island. They're having their village corporation meeting today. Yesterday they had other meetings at the hall and it's really unfortunate that the ANB hall was booked up. Klawock is kind of the center or our island and they do have the ANB hall so we try and have all our big meetings at the ANB hall. Because everyone knows -- you know, the local people know if there's cars parked, they stop to see what's going on. You know, they just peek in and see if it's something they're interested in. And anyways, I got my complaining out.

I hope you all were able to get out and see a little bit of our island because it is -- it's really beautiful here. The people the bulk of the people are very friendly and I hope that you will come back. 2 And I need to get to work so I can pay for my car. 3 (Laughter) You all have a good weekend. 4 5 CHAIRMAN THOMAS: All you Natives sound alike. 6 7 MR. You have voiced 13 the same thing that we hear across the state and you 14 voiced expressions that some people would like to make 15 but are afraid to. So, we all realize the represent-16 ation that you bring with you and we appreciate you 17 doing that. Thank you. 18 19 MS. MR. LARSEN: Mr. Chairman and council members, I'd like to say thank you, first of all, for the opportunity to participate in this process. I commend you. I think your hearts are in the right place. I think you're working hard in behalf of the resource and, of course as a resource agency, it's really good to see. An observation. I think it's commendable and important that this group continue to bring forward issues about the Tongass, the land use. I mean without the habitat, without the land base to support fish and wildlife resources as we all know, we've lost the bill.

CHAIRMAN THOMAS: Did you get a copy of this?

MR. LARSEN: No, I didn't.

CHAIRMAN THOMAS: You can have that one.

MR. LARSEN: The other thing that I wanted to say is that there is a lot of information that is available through the state: harvest information and survey information. The federal agencies have come to the state and gotten that information and used it in a lot of the decision-making process. I just want to make sure that this council is aware that that's there and that if there is any need or desire to get a hold of some of that information, any of our offices would be more than happy to make that available. Again, thank you for ...

CHAIRMAN THOMAS: That's been extended to us and we appreciate that. And we appreciate that. We've never had the opportunity to meet you folks before and we're thankful for that. Dolly.

MS. GARZA: Perhaps as part of that invitation, if we could get from all of the agencies their names and addresses like on one sheet, Fred, so that if we want to contact somebody we can pull out a sheet and figure out where they are. MS. ROBINSON: The ones that attended this meeting? MR. CLARK: I have almost everybody on the list already. MS. GARZA: Okay. MR. CLARK: On a sheet.

LTD COURT REPORTERS

MS. WILSON: I also want a picture by each name. (Laughter)

MR. LARSEN: It's nice to put faces and names together. It really does help.

MS. ROBINSON: After a while you pick it up, but if you only see it once, it's hard to remember.

MR. TUREK: We all tend to look alike.

MS. ROBINSON: Yeah, you do. It's all the beards. The beards throw you off.

MR. TUREK: I'd just like to add a few things. The Division of Subsistence. Bob Shroeder would have been here, but he's acting division Director, so he couldn't make it, so I came and I would have came anyway. We're really looking forward to working with you, the division does. Everything that we've got, you know -- I'll work with Dolly in particular, closely on anything that you might need, you know, you have access to. So we're real excited that we're able to work with you and look forward to work with you in the future. I should be at all your meetings. I'll be at the Grand Camp meeting in Hydaburg, probably attending that also. So, I just want to thank you for inviting us.

CHAIRMAN THOMAS: Yes, this is -- it's getting better all the time. Once we put aside some of our anxieties and some of our dug-in spots, I think we're all recognizing some positive things that's happening here.

MR. HOFFMAN: Mr. Chairman, yes. Just to let you know that somebody from the Sports Fish Division will be attending all your meetings and stuff depending where they're at in the region. We've made an internal decision that it's important to be available and provide information to this committee as well as other committees that we deal with, so one of us will be at your meetings at all times.

CHAIRMAN THOMAS: Appreciate that.

MS. ROBINSON: Thank you.

 CHAIRMAN THOMAS: Just as a note of information. When the discussions about zeroing out the subsistence department, during the last session, Harold Martin from the Subsistence Commission called me and asked me if I would fax a message to the legislators to encourage them to give it more serious commitment budget-wise, and I did that. One of the things I stated on there was that even though the feds have made this impact, that it has a lot better chance of succeeding with the information and material that you folks have; and I mentioned that, and it's very true.

MR. HOFFMAN: Well, we appreciate that very much. I'd be out of a job, so I personally appreciate it.

MR. LARSEN: Mr. Chairman, one other thing.

CHAIRMAN THOMAS: Yeah, Doug.

MR. LARSEN: In response to Dolly's request for names and addresses, I think it's good to get names and addresses of people who attend this meeting. Likewise, like Steve was saying, it won't necessarily be one of us, that is, Steve or myself at these meetings, but somebody from our division. So if you would like, we can make sure to get the names and addresses of all our biologists in each of the communities where we have people stationed, if that would help you.

CHAIRMAN THOMAS: I think it would. I think if we had some kind of agency directory-type of thing and have it just for the council, then as members come and go, the directory information will still be here.

MR. LARSEN: Sure.

MR. CLARK: Mr. Chairman, I'm hoping to put together exactly that sort of directory in the next couple of months.

CHAIRMAN THOMAS: Okay.

CHAIRMAN THOMAS: I'd appreciate all that. Patty.

MS. PHILLIPS: Mr. Chair. I'm thinking of how we can identify customary traditional subsistence uses. It would be nice to know that we could network with agencies to get that information. For instance, I know that Mike is involved in the harbor seal survey and he has contacts in every community that go in and do these surveys. I feel like he doesn't have the power to tell these people or ask them while you're at it, what your subsistence uses are. Then that could be sent back to But we don't have that power or that directive. If we could get, somehow, or let these agencies know that we need to network and work together to get the most for our buck -- I don't know where to begin that, but -- that would be good.

CHAIRMAN THOMAS: That's true. We don't have the luxury of being adversarial around here. And we don't want to do that. We thank you very much. Really appreciate it. Who's the least represented? Service? Come on up, Park Service.

> MR. CAPRA: For questions or comments?

CHAIRMAN THOMAS: Comments. If you can't say nothing nice, don't say nothing at all.

MR. CAPRA: Jim Capra with the Park Service. just want to elaborate on, but I don't have any comments that pertain directly to the Park Service, but I wanted to elaborate on Patty's comment about us getting background on subsistence uses.

One of the most effective ways, at least, that I've done, and probably that you could all do, is to go out on a personal level in your own communities, and see what the subsistence uses are. At these meetings you'll have at least more depth and knowledge than what you have now, hopefully about what the subsistence uses are in your area. Thanks.

> CHAIRMAN THOMAS: We all appreciate that.

LTD COURT REPORTERS

MR. CAPRA: That would be helpful at these meetings. I know here today or here at these meetings, the council has been at a loss because of people missing from certain communities and affected areas. It would be nice to have everybody here. I know that's not always possible, but people in their areas have a good depth of knowledge. I know that I'm kind of at a loss being in Yakutat less than a year to speak as a real qualified expert there.

MR. THOMPSON: Thank you very much, Mr. Chairman, Ken Thompson. I really did want to take the opportunity to thank you for your close involvement with our organization and much of the positive reinforcements you've have given us. I particularly want to invite you to feel free to call me or Jack Calf, or Phil Janek, anybody, you know, that is involved in the hierarchy of this program any time you I know that I feel very free to call Dale and rag on him any time I want, although I haven't done so It's a pleasure to have people like Carol, too much. and Fred in our organization to be able to work closely with you. CHAIRMAN THOMAS: Thank you. Anybody else from the tree-hugging agencies?

MR. JOHNSON: Mr. Chairman. I wish to approach he bench.

MR. ANDERSON Could we borrow 50 cents?

MS. ROBINSON: Thank you, Dave.

CHAIRMAN THOMAS: This looks like a subsidiary KPC. Thank you, Dave. Are there any other Forest Service? Paul?

MR. WILSON: The Natives were the original owners before Forest Service, so I reserve the right to speak. I want to thank you for learning the procedures and the process. I'll have to learn to make proposals. So that means I'll have to pay more attention to what Marilyn's been telling me all these years. Now I know what she's tried to teach me. You'll hear from Haines. You'll hear from the original owners of Alaska. Thank you.

CHAIRMAN THOMAS: Thank you Paul. We've created a monster. Anybody else? Hank.

MR. NEWHOUSE: The times that the advisory council gets together each year are high points of the year because I come to the council meetings and what I see is community. I see the community of Southeast coming together, each of you coming here and working hard on what is essential for us to continue to function as a community in this wonderful place of Southeast Alaska. It just fills me up and enables me to go and deal with a lot of the other negative things that seem to pull at us each day. I really appreciate it. I know there's a lot of diversity on the council and that in itself makes it special. There's differences of opinions and yet you function as a community and that's real special.

CHAIRMAN THOMAS: Thank you Hank. In Ketchikan and other places, Hank is very involved in the community. I wonder about it sometimes. Wherever there is pain seems to attract him. I've kind of been watching him because I don't know what medical profession to keep waiting for him but he likes agony and pain, but he does a good job with what ever he does. He's a subsistence guide, he's a liaison and he does a very good job and everything he does. Thank you, Hank. Anybody else. Bill, I'm saving you for later on. Larry. It's either this or a $50 dollar fine.

LTD COURT REPORTERS

MR. ROBERTS: Considering the alternative, I think I'd better say some nice things about you. I find it really enjoyable. I've been involved with subsistence since I moved to Alaska, working with the Forest Service as an archaeologist and also the anthropological side of this issue. And becoming more involved with you as a group has been really rewarding for me as well. I have to echo a lot of what Hank has just said. With time, I think even the agencies are changing and understanding and grasping what you're trying to tell us about the traditional and customary uses that are taking place out in the national forests. I'm learning and I hope you'll be patient with me because it's a steep learning curve for me as well. Even though I have a little bit of a background in anthropology and archeology, I'm still learning, I think and it's rounding out my experiences working with this group. I appreciate your cooperation and assistance in helping me with my understanding of how this all works, how it all fits together. Thanks very much.

CHAIRMAN THOMAS: Thank you. We're trying to get as much done before we become a subject of anthropology. Dale.

MR. KANEN: Well, I was waiting until after Ted spoke.

CHAIRMAN THOMAS: Okay. Mr. Schenk.

MR. SCHENK: Mr. Chairman, my wife suggested to me that I needed to get out of the house and have some fun. "Why don't you go down to Craig and meet with those people." You folks are just a joy to work with and it's my privilege to be able to provide information for you to deliberate on. We have a lot of things in common. I didn't know that I was a Native prior to this meeting. You know, I'm part of the alterNative group. I hadn't recognized that before. I enjoy these meetings and the humor and the work that get's done. From me to you, thank you.

CHAIRMAN THOMAS: Thank you. It's always a pleasure. We're rating these now, so this has got to be the best of the bunch. Different agency.

MR. KANEN: Thank you, Mr. Chair and council.

I've really enjoyed seeing a lot of my old friends here and wish we could have had more time outside of the meeting. I guess the things that come to my mind that I would say to my agency are sort of different than what I would say to this body. Mainly, I'm really encouraged by the hard work that you've done and I think I feel more secure each meeting that this process is going to be a success and that it will maybe upheld as an example in public participation in land management. It's not a bunch of bureaucrats making the decisions and recommendations and so that's exciting to me. I would just encourage you, between now and the next meeting, to call the Forest Service people in your area if you have questions about various issues — if you need some of the legal things hashed out, some of the biological stuff — call them and get the information and make them work for you. Thank you.

CHAIRMAN THOMAS: Thank you, Dale. Appreciate all the support that your office has lent us while we're here. We appreciate that very much, including -- especially him. Lead agency.

I also would like to express my MR. KNAUER: appreciation for the opportunity to work with you folks and to serve you. I would certainly invite all of you who might have an opportunity to be in Anchorage to stop over at the Fish and Wildlife Service offices and come in and take a look, meet the other people that are there. We get to see Bill Thomas frequently, but I don't know if the rest of you have had that opportunity. If you get up to AFN, we usually have a display somewhere, stop around and see who's there and say hello. In situations like this, good things happen when reasonable people get together and communicate and it's always easier to open the door if you're on the inside working together than it is if you're on the outside shouting and pounding. You folks are part of the group that are on the inside opening the door to others to help your community and your region. thank you for the service that you are willing to provide to all of them.

CHAIRMAN THOMAS: Thank you, Bill. In regards to the office, those of you that's going to be attending the AFN, I'll be up there and I'll have transportation, and I will, when I see you, invite you to take you out to the offices and meet the people besides whatever display they have at AFN. They have a real fine staff out there?

MS. GARZA: Is it close to CostCo?

CHAIRMAN THOMAS: Council comments? Ms. Garza?

MS. GARZA: Mr. Chairman, this has been a very productive meeting. I think as he suggested, we are starting to look at tougher issues and take more on. I think my voice from Sitka will continue to be that we need to address fisheries, we need to address fisheries, we need to address fisheries, and that's all you're going to hear from me until we address fisheries. I understand the process that we have to go through. I think it's unfortunate subsistence continues regardless of the process. I do very much appreciate the different perspectives of this council because I think that's what creates a consensus that will keep us unified as a region. Thank you.

CHAIRMAN THOMAS: Thank you. Marilyn?

Every year that I come to this MS. WILSON: council meeting, we have some new faces, we have some old faces from the old days, and it seems like every year I learn something a little more, and every year I find out how little I do and how much more that I can do as a council member. This year, especially, I'm feeling that. What can I do to represent the Southeast, not only Haines, not only one town, but all To have that much responsibility is a little bit scary, so I am forever trying to learn more about the issues. I try to keep reading the newspapers on all the legislation and all the things that are going Sometimes I feel very inadequate, but I guess all on. each of us can do is to listen to all the issues, to listen to our own people in our own communities; not only in our own communities, but other communities. More or less all of the communities sound pretty much alike on the main issues of subsistence. This has got to be one of the best groups that I can ever remember working with, and working along with. It's been very enjoyable and very productive. I'm very glad we chose Bill as our chairman once again, because I think he's a very capable and very good leader.

CHAIRMAN THOMAS: Thank you, Marilyn. John

here that's been the most rewarding for me and offered to grow in knowledge and experience that gives me a better perspective of how the whole process is working. Actually, some of the rewarding things are visible, at this time, on the river as far as moose hunting. was a big thing with me sticking my neck out the first meeting in Sitka where everybody that hunted the Stikine River wanted to get rid of the 50 inch and three tines, so I really felt like I was in the hot seat right from the start. Now I see last year they didn't get very much moose, I think only three for the whole season -- one month season. This year, before I left Wrangell there was already three and they were all legal kills. To me that's progress and it's an indication that this process is working. Like Paul said, "You'll be hearing more from Wrangell." Probably not as much as Yakutat, but we'll get some proposals in and actually use the process. That's where I feel like I should be too, is out moose hunting, but I can't be at two places at once.

I'm sure he'll catch up on everything. It's a lot of work to move to a different community, but other than that, I'll wrap her up there.

CHAIRMAN THOMAS: Thank you, John. Patty.

MS. PHILLIPS: Mr. Chairman, I would like to express my deep gratitude to each of the council members, and I am very honored to work with you as a council. I too, like John, have learned how the process can work. I also presented another controversial proposal that this council supported and that was being able to shoot from an open skiff in Unit 4. On Raven Radio I heard the controversy and my husband said to me, "It will never fly," and it did. through because the council and myself were able to show the Federal Subsistence Board that it was customary and traditional. It's been a real learning process and I continue to learn and I realize that I may not seem like I'm willing to work with the board, but I am. Constantly, it's all diverse ideas. home and I think about what everybody said and sometimes I do change my mind. Thank you.

CHAIRMAN THOMAS: Vicki.

MS. LE CORNU: Thanks. I just want to agree with Patty. I think it's really great to work with all the council members, the staff. I think I've learned a lot at this meeting. I was reminded by Jim of the problems that Jim Martinez said. I've known all these years. So, I think he really brought it home to us this morning. I just feel that it's not our responsibility. It is the community's responsibility. I don't think that they have met it and we've learned that today. Thank you.

CHAIRMAN THOMAS: Thank you.

MS. RUDOLPH: I want to thank the board for making me feel so at home, and for all the other entities that are here from different departments that have been very helpful in giving me suggestions. were a lot of things that went through my mind as I was coming to this meeting wondering if I was going to be really naive and stupid with my comments. Everybody has made me feel so welcome and part of the group, that I appreciate everyone who has helped me feel right at home here and I appreciate all of the input and hopefully I can be an asset to the board by giving my concerns from our village and hopefully, I can give more to the village where they can participate more by giving their ideas and their concerns so we don't have as much frustration as we go back home, expecting -- a lot of times they come to the board and expect us to solve the problem and we're just liaisons to go to the board.

So, I'm hoping I can be -- a lot of times I feel frustrated, I'll talk of something that's not going to be heard but someone else will say the same thing and it's going to hit home with somebody. I'm hoping that I can do some of that when I get home and give them some of the things that the board did.

I'd also like to be kept informed after putting the video together because we do have a scanner at home that we put videos on. That may be one way of educating our village of what the board has done. We had a traditional council that did the very same thing where they videod all our movies so that we had record of all of our movies so that anything important that came up that concerned the village was put on a scanner. I think it's a real good idea. Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

CHAIRMAN THOMAS: Thank you. Mim.

LTD COURT REPORTERS

MS. ROBINSON: The thought had occurred to me about trying to think back to the old regional council and how everyone was very localized in their thinking. You represented your community and that was it. was really hard to reach consensus among 22 people. When we started this council, the 13 of us who came together still kind of carried that feeling with us. Those who had been on the old one and even the new members. I remember Carol trying to get it into our heads that we represent all Southeast. We can't have someone from every community. You have to step out and stick your neck out and represent the whole area. think that, thanks to the Congregational delegation, it's been very much accomplished at this meeting. We've had to really be unified and protect Southeast and it's brought us all together and I like how that's happened. I like the feeling that's between us and I feel like we finally did it. Somebody should get that word to Carol that it finally happened.

So, thank you for being there for us and welcome to Fred. I appreciate working with you and I think that's going to go fine. Congratulations to our re-election and elections for the officers. I feel good about it. I look forward to the next meeting. Your turn, Lonnie.

CHAIRMAN THOMAS: Thank you, Mim.

MR. ANDERSON: One of the things that I think the council saw this morning when Mr. Martinez came in and then, of course, Patty's feeling of frustration, I can sense that there's a tremendous frustration among our local people on this subsistence issue. I think that it's going to be even more politically inclined as we go on. I would urge the council to be aware and conscious of those problems. I think that through dialogue we can work through this, but it's going to be a frustrating experience for a lot of them and I would urge the council to try -- you know, communication is the best means of overcoming problems. Even though, at this meeting, some of us, we don't want to, we say,

LTD COURT REPORTERS

"Well, I didn't see the sign or I wasn't personally invited." I think that if it's in -- whichever community that's invited, the council member is going to have to do a little advertising. John can show us how in this up and coming.

There's a lot of controversies in Wrangell, the mill shut down and things of those sorts. And so, public opinion is going to be very strong. I appreciate working with the agencies, a lot of high-powered brain power. We need to take advantage of their expertise with these issues.

Dolly, I appreciate your input. You come from a little different attitude than some of us may be used to and that's good because we definitely need input from local regions to this. I would urge each and everyone of the council members to do the -- well, like this annual report. Start making up next year's annual report by running surveys throughout the community. I'm in a little better situation than you in that I have an office and I can contact people individually and I have time. As they come in, we talk subsistence issue as well as municipal issues. We're striving to improve our image in the subsistence arena.

I think there was more harmony among groups before the word "subsistence" ever came into being in the late '70s. Some of our friends are sort of reluctant to associate with us in the subsistence issue. That's sad when people disassociate just over fish and foods that we all use. Fred, I would say that you have a tough job keeping these people satisfied. One thing I would urge the council not to do is to jump on Fred, because we're sort of brothers. AlterNative brothers. Welcome aboard.

MR. CLARK: We'll call it the Eagle's Nest.

MR. ANDERSON: But thank you.

CHAIRMAN THOMAS: Fred. name).

MR. CLARK: I don't know that I can say too awful much more than has already been said.

CHAIRMAN THOMAS: Thank you.

MR. CLARK: But I'll try. Your task and your responsibility is really huge and it's part of a much huger process in the Federal Subsistence Program and how it relates to the state program and all of that. think it's remarkable, not only how you've accepted the responsibility, but that you come to the table with an incredible background and knowledge, sensitivity and dedication. But the knowledge and the background isn't enough. You bring something else very important, and that's the heart. You bring the emotions, the awareness of your communities on a regional basis and that's what gives the council its strength, and that's also what has allowed you to work so well together. I'm very impressed with your interactions. And, I'm really honored to be a part of the process with you and to feel that sense of heart. To be able to take the tools and information that's provided from your own background and integrate that with all the technical detail provided by the agencies and bring that together in a coherent form, it's very hard to do, and I think you're doing a remarkable job along those lines.

MS. GUTHRIE: I'm Irene. I'm speaking on behalf of the public. Since the public isn't here, I can safely say that, from my people's point of view, I think they all appreciate all the work you people are doing. Since I've been through these meetings, I have learned how complicated it is for you all and you're learning the terms and learning all the words you need to know to understand what you're doing. For me, I'm learning that too. I know the task you have ahead of I appreciate all of you. I appreciate the diversity of the council. MS. ROBINSON: Can I look at the ferry schedule?

CHAIRMAN THOMAS: After we adjourn. Let's consider ourselves adjourned if there's nothing...

MS. GARZA: I think she meant as far as getting the Wrangell meeting date set.

CHAIRMAN THOMAS: Oh, that. Oh, I thought you meant in terms of going home.

MS. ROBINSON: No, no.

CHAIRMAN THOMAS: I'm sorry. Yes, let's look at the schedule.

MS. ROBINSON: I was noticing on the schedule that, on the ferry schedule, there is no way to tie the ferry with a Thursday, Friday, and Saturday meeting. The only way to really do it is to have the meeting start like on Monday or Tuesday and fly in if we can't. Otherwise on Sunday nights or — on every Sunday night or early Monday morning, there's a ferry that leaves Juneau that comes in. I was just looking at it from the Juneau approach. I don't know about any other approach into Wrangell that we would want to look at. Sitka people and myself and Patty and stuff could fly into Juneau hopefully on Alas — Patty would have to figure out a schedule from Pelican, I guess, if there is one.

MS. GARZA: There's a ferry that leaves Sitka on Tuesday and gets us in there on Wednesday morning. The problem I have focusing out of Juneau is that if Wrangell is down, it's likely that Juneau will be down too.

MS. ROBINSON: Yeah. Yeah, with the weather. We're always taking our chances for any of these meetings. I hate to do this totally around the ferry schedule, but than again maybe at that time of year, we should. I don't know.

CHAIRMAN THOMAS: How about if we just kind of update ourselves and each other, keeping that in mind and really focusing in after the holidays and kind of staying in touch. By then we'll have more control of the weather.

LTD COURT REPORTERS

MR. ANDERSON: That is if you buy me a Christmas 2 present. 3 4 CHAIRMAN THOMAS: I'll buy you a Christmas 5 present. 6 7 MR. ANDERSON: You'll have good weather in 8 February. 9 10 MS. ROBINSON: Yeah. 17 18 CHAIRMAN THOMAS: Yesterday we talked about the 19 1st. 20 21 MS. ROBINSON: There is a Sitka ferry that leaves 22 on the 6th. There's a ferry that leaves Juneau on the 23 8th at 3:30 in the morning and gets you in that 24 afternoon. So someone who couldn't make it out by 25 Thursday could, at least, be there for Thursday night, 26 Friday and Saturday. 27 28 MS. PHILLIPS: There's a ferry leaving the 11th 29 if we don't get out. 30 31 For the return. That would be MS. ROBINSON: 32 okay with me. 33 34 MS. WILSON: Is that the 8th, 9th and 10th? 35 36 MS. ROBINSON: Yes. 37 38 CHAIRMAN THOMAS: I can give you a worse case 39 example of being in Wrangell. I went up for some other 40 business and it was just like this when I got to 41 Wrangell. There wasn't a hint of snow anyplace. 42 was bright and clear. We had a meeting that evening. We got out of the meeting and there was probably three 43 44 inches of snow on the ground. By midnight there was a 45 foot and the next morning there was two feet and still 46 I had a 3 o'clock flight that I was coming down. 47 scheduled for and there was no sky any place.
